THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE V.ESWARAIAH

Date:10-11-2005

WRIT PETITION No.13957 OF 2005

BETWEEN:

E.Pushpamma

…Petitioner

And

The Station House officer, P.S.Shamshabad & others.

…Respondents

ORDER:

The only grievance of the petitioner is that the Station House Officer, Shamshabad Police Station is interfering with his civil rights and insisting to divide the premises admeasuing 23 Sq.yards, situated in Sy.No.760/part, situated at Shamshabad village and Mandal of Rangareddy District among the respondents 2 and 3.

Inspite of adjourning the matter for five times, the learned Government Pleader for Home did not obtain any instructions. None appears for the petitioner also.

However, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that the first respondent cannot interfere with the civil rights of the petitioner and cannot insist upon division of the premises among the parties. If there is any complaint filed by any person, it is always open for the first respondent to register F.I.R., and investigate into the case, but without filing any report, he cannot interfere with the civil rights of the petitioner.

With the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
